. . . Foreword - - -

It has been the purpose of the staff, in the presentation of the 1940 Pennant, to portray, more than ever before, student activities; to honor those students who participate in these activities; and to recognize the one or ones who have made these activities possible. In so doing, it is our hope that the pages herein will contain a wealth of treasured memories.

. . . The 1940 Pennant Is Presented to - - -

. . . Those students who have made Reagan what it is today through their unselfish service and loyalty. Their participation in scholastic activities has created an ever-growing and an everlasting trail of glory for this school community such as was pioneered by the man whose name this institution bears . . .

. . . And to R. H. Williams, principal, who by his continuous service has instituted those activities which have made possible the student participation of which we are so justly proud. His foresight, during 15 years at Reagan, has been the key which unlocked the gate of opportunity and experience and has made for school spirit which reaches the "Heights."

Hence, to such combination of leadership, service, and loyalty—we dedicate the 1940 Pennant!

TO THE CLASS OF 1940:

If you have not already made out a program for your life, do so now, and map it out with a sense of direction, but with no sense of obstacles.

Ninety-five per cent see the obstacles that have to be overcome in order to reach a coveted goal—and back away. The other five per cent see the objective—and press forward. Small men painstakingly survey the first obstacle which dwarfs their natures and foreshortens their vision. Great men with a sense of direction have their confidence and determination which trample obstacles underfoot.

History records the success of men with objectives and a sense of direction. Oblivion is the position of small men overwhelmed by obstacles.

R. H. WILLIAMS,
Principal.

Addie Roy

Miss Roy looks mathematical . . . Miss Kennerly gets ready to teach that history lesson . . . Mrs. Holberg checks excuses in her office . . .

Mrs. Scarborough comes to the end of a perfect day . . . Mrs. Godley asks again for National Honor Society dues . . . Studebaker goes mechanical . . . And so the school day ends! . . .

Mr. Lindsay leads with gusto . . . Mr. Walls, singing science schoolmaster, poses for his public . . . Camera catches the Tittle profile . . .

Pupils and (other) insects keep Miss Peterson going . . . Donned in her pink angora sweater, Miss Bates poses . . . Mrs. Parrett rests in the middle of a strenuous day . . .

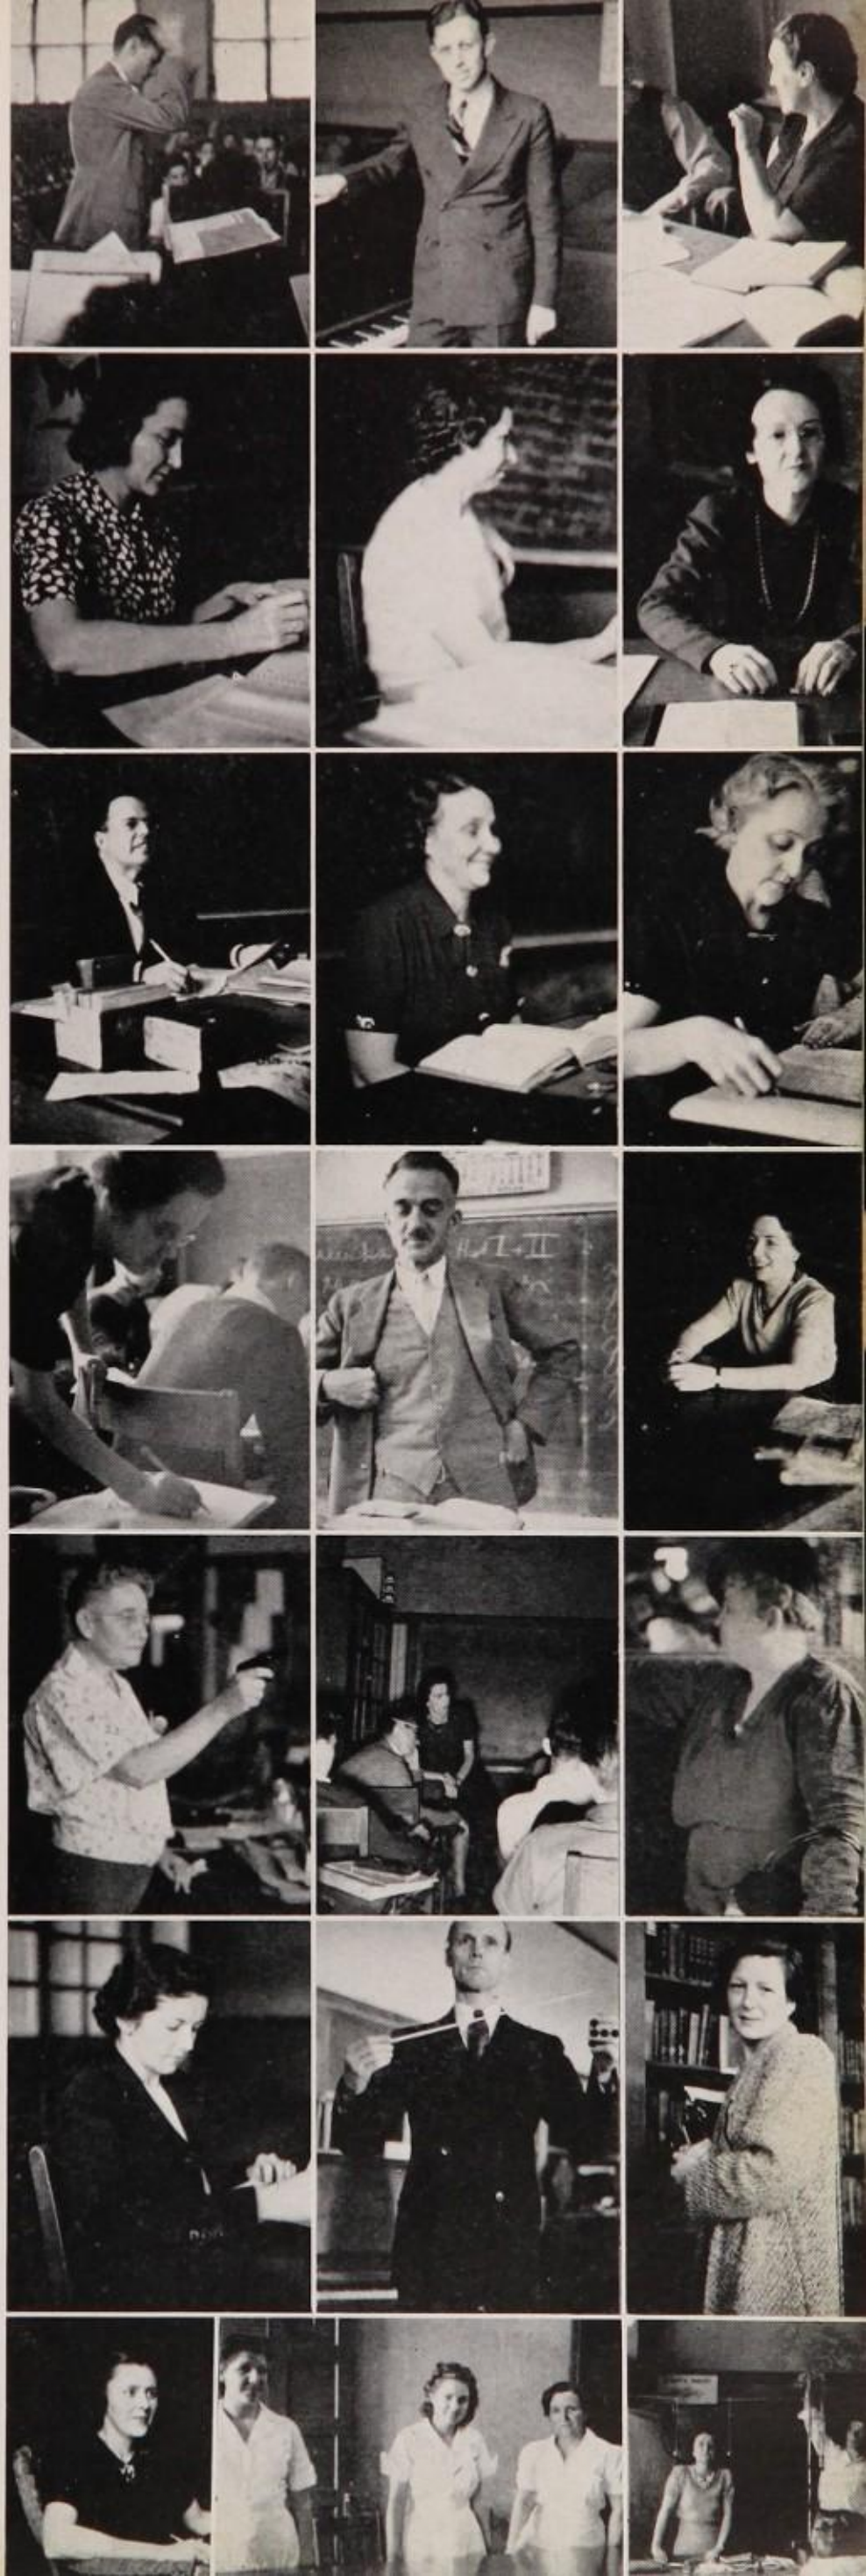
Mr. Nash enjoys grading an "A" paper . . . Mrs. Gaugler lets go with a good laugh . . . Miss Rucker decides the fate of her students . . .

Miss Ferguson checks up on the homework situation . . . Mr. Parker closes his eyes on the matter . . . Mrs. Brand looks pleased with the Girls' Glee Club . . .

Miss Ware puts another victim out of misery . . . Miss Crawford is caught unaware . . . Mrs. Creekmore was ready to celebrate the first day of spring . . .

Miss Alvord gets right down to business . . . Maestro Murdock strives for perfection . . . Miss Campbell checks out some reference books . . .

Mrs. Gale plans Red Coat activities . . . Time out for lunch! . . . Mrs. Green experiments . . .



The faculty members of Reagan Senior High School dedicate this page to Miss Vera Harris who retired in 1939 after thirty-five years of continuous, loyal, and efficient service in the high schools of Houston Heights.

Her patient and untiring interest in her students and her school, her modest and unassuming personality, and her faithful and excellent devotion to duty have endeared her to all with whom she has come in contact.

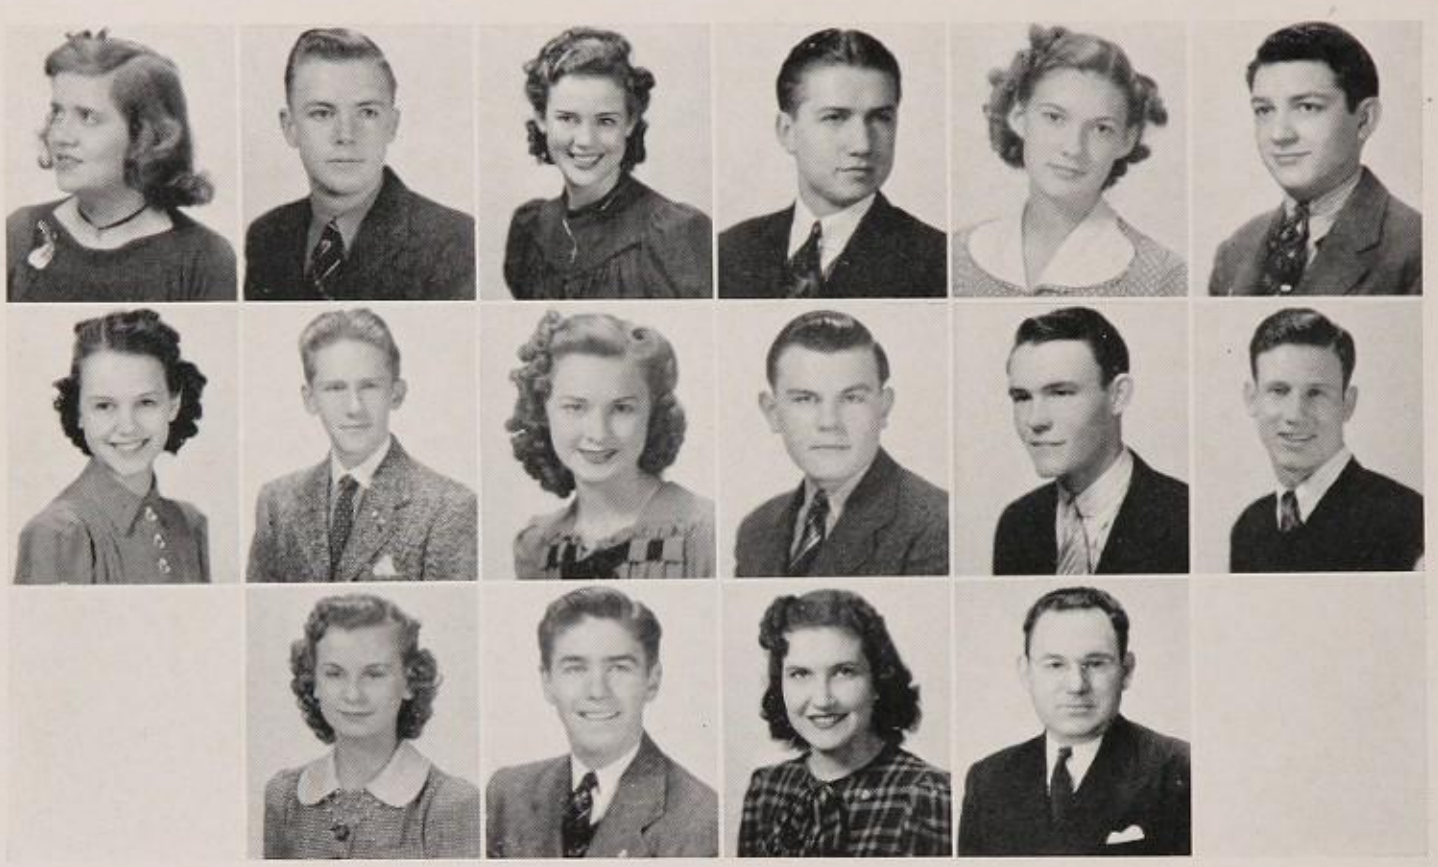
Society - - -

The National Honor Society

Honor, the by-word of civilization, has been for centuries the most precious possession of mankind; but national honor has always been preconceived and dedicated to the convenience of its interpretation by individual nations. However, in 1919 national honor was given a new meaning and dedicated to a new cause. The principals of secondary schools of the United States discovered that the best place to foster national honor is in the public schools and to that end organized the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools. The purpose of this society is to encourage high standards of scholarship combined with leadership, service, and character. In accordance with these principles, John H. Reagan, became one of 5000 schools to have a National Honor Society Chapter, on April 8, 1935. Since that time, this society has been sponsored by R. H. Williams, principal, and Mrs. Harriet Godley.

. . . Student Council . . .



Sponsored by R. H. Williams, principal, the Student Council is composed of presidents of all school organizations and the president and secretary of all classes.

Purpose of the organization is to promote coordination among the students and to assist in school management.

. . . Student Life Federation - - -

Purpose of the Student Life Federation, organized two years ago by J. O. Webb, director of Houston senior high schools, is to promote fellowship among the seven schools. Led by J. R. Holcomb, the Reagan chapter is composed of representative students from all school organizations. Principal activities for the year included regular morning meetings, a city-wide meeting at Reagan in January followed by a dance in the auditorium, and a barbecue and dance at Camp Beaty in April.

Reagan members include:

Jimmy Rogers
George Knetsar

. . . The Pennant - - -

Upper center—Marilyn Heflin and Jane Bryan, art editors, with Betty Boyce, club editor, and Harvey Cherry, sports editor.

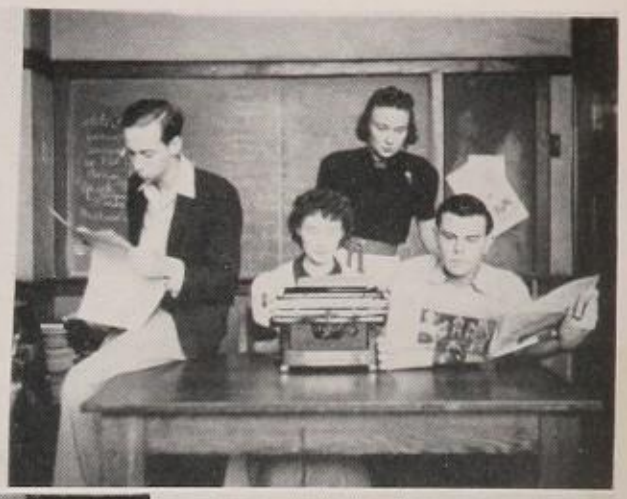
Expressing appreciation for the cooperation extended us by faculty and student body alike.

Happy that it was our privilege to present the twenty-fifth Reagan yearbook, the "Silver Jubilee" annual.

Hoping that you like the book as much as we enjoyed presenting it to you.

THE STAFF.

. . . The Statesman - - -



Right top—Harry Reed and LaVelle Williams, each editor for a semester, with Quinlan Millender, feature writer, and Miss Roma Ann Scott, sponsor, look over this year's issues of the Statesman in preparation for the Senior Issue, May 17.

Truly a daily part of the school lives of all staff members, the Statesman grew in size this year to a six and eight page paper, winning "All-Texas" at the Texas High School Press Association in December, placing first with the Interscholastic League Press in Southeast Texas for the fourth consecutive year, and winning "First Honor Rating—Excellent" with the National Scholastic Press.

At the State I.L.P.C. convention in Austin, May 3 and 4, La Velle Williams won first in the state in headline writing and Quinlan Millender placed fifth in feature writing. Bill Douglas was elected next year's president of the I.L.P.C.

With the acceptance of 18 journalism students at the Spring Initiation, the Reagan Chapter of Quill and Scroll boosted its active membership to 36 members.

The year 1940 marks the fourth anniversary of Reagan's securing a charter for a chapter of the national honor society for high school journalists. Accepted into membership of Quill and Scroll are only those students of junior and senior standing who have no lower than a "B" average and who have done outstanding work in some phase of journalism.

Present active members at Reagan include: Warren Higginbotham, Dorothy Tubb, Betty Boyce, Bill Ferrell, Lois Arnold, Dorothy Crafton, Bartell Purnell, Betty Jane Bell, Kathryn Poe, Harry Reed, Ethel Levy, Delores Frey, Donald Richardson, La Velle Williams, Mavis Davis, Harvey Cherry, Constance Chookas, Rutha Lee Blackburn, Bill Douglas, and Alice Marion Dennard.

Adele Chalupnik, George Harrell, Fred Maxwell, Helen Johnson, Martha Babbitt, Quinlan Millender, Jeannette Morgan, Betty Johnson, Elton Whisenhunt, LaVerne Ladig, Genevieve Wharton, Thelma Post, Virginia Blair, Harriette Smith, Louise DeWoody, and Mabel King.

Activities of the Speech Forum

The Reagan Speech Forum, composed of qualified members from J. R. Holcomb's speech classes, held regular meetings every second Thursday night. Its purpose was to promote extra-curricular activities and to stimulate interest in speech work.

At one of the meetings Frank Colby spoke on the Vocabulary. Later at the annual Thanksgiving Speech Banquet, Judge King spoke to those present on Life's Ambitions. Together with the Social Science Club, the Speech Forum heard the British Consul, Mr. Slaymaker, speak on The Present European War. An intra-mural declamation contest was sponsored by this forum. Frances Brunson and George Fox were the winners. Other activities included a picnic at San Jacinto R'ver and a beach party.

Herbert Antoine, a member of this organization, represented the school in the American Legion contest. He won first in city, first in regional, and placed third in state.

. . . Off Key—Or Was it the Record? . . .

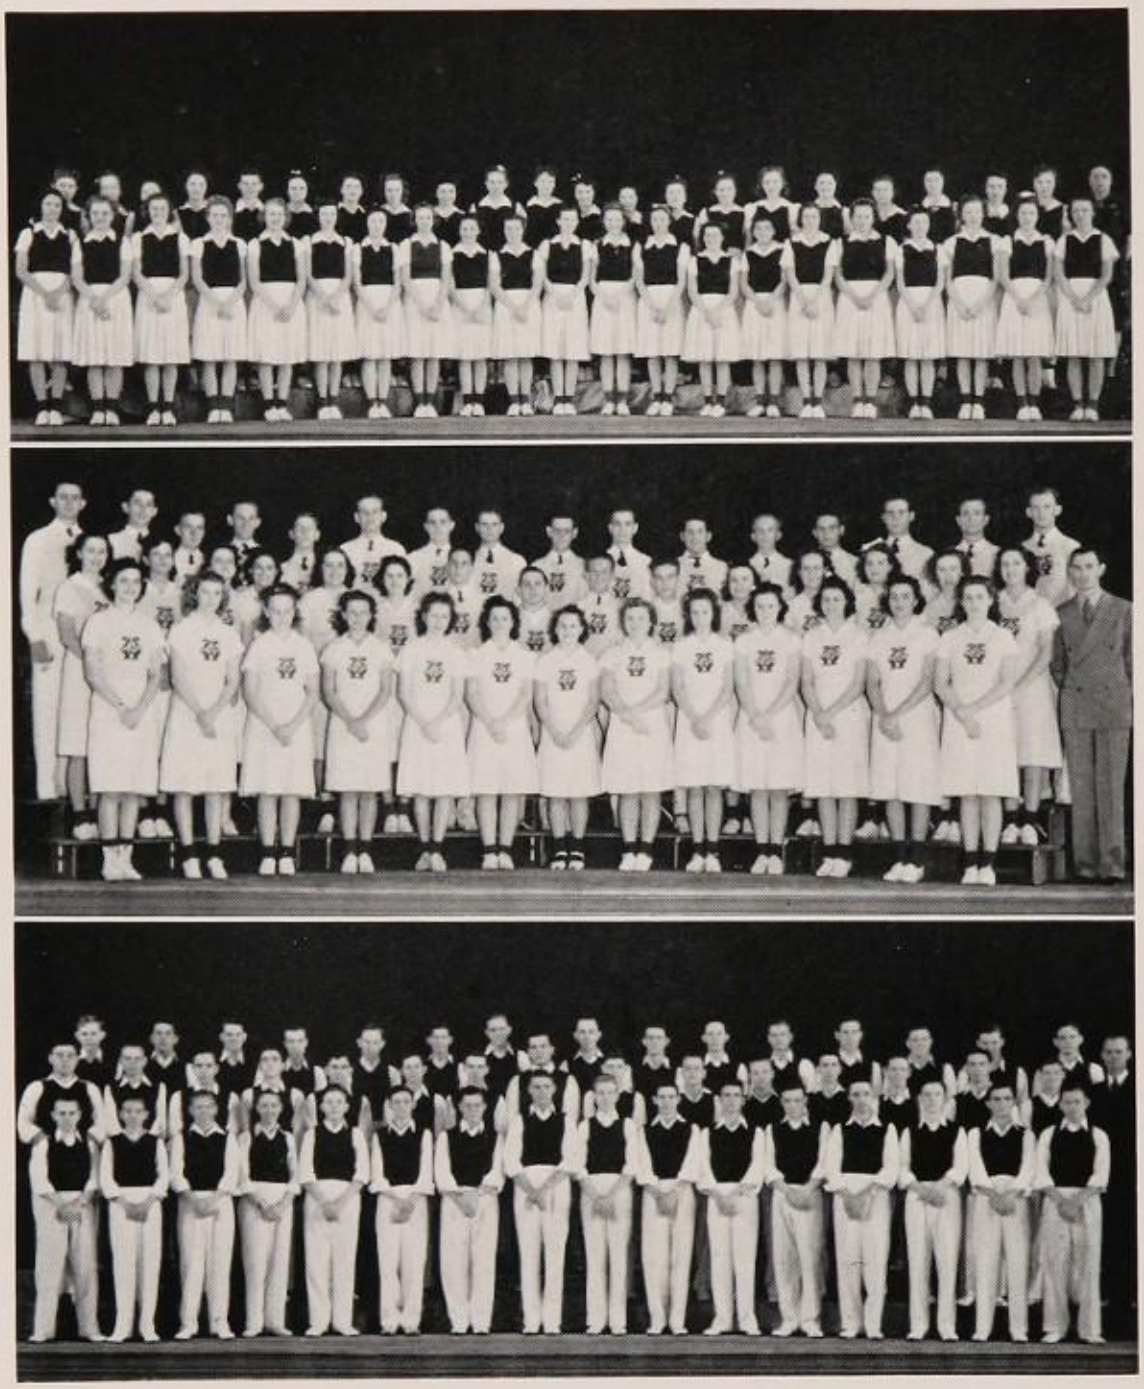
. . . Band and Orchestra ' ' '

The Band, under the direction of Charles S. Lindsay, is one of the busiest organizations of the school. It played for all school football games, making a very colorful appearance on the football field. Last fall it accompanied the football team to Dallas and to Conroe. The band proved to be very popular with the junior high schools when it played for both Hamilton and Hogg. It has played for both the Fall and Spring Music Festivals, and won second division honors in the Regional Band Contest.

During the year the orchestra has played for Hogg and Hamilton Junior High School assembly programs. It played in both Fall and Spring Music Festivals and competed in the Regional Music Contest in Huntsville. The orchestra played also at many special auditorium programs and assemblies.

Members of the Music Department, students and faculty members, wish to express to Charles S. Lindsay their gratitude for his efforts and interest during the past six and one half years. Mr. Lindsay leaves this year to become vocal instructor at Sam Houston State Teachers' College at Huntsville.

. . . Vocal Divisions . . .



The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs Lillian Cooper, has sung at the Baptist Temple, for the Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Tuesday Music Club, and Hogg Junior High Assembly. They have given programs at the Central Presbyterian Church and the Art Museum. They were the only high school glee club honored by the privilege of singing at the Art Museum.

At both the Regional and National Vocal Contests the Girls' Glee Club carried away first division honors, the only school music group to do so.

Under the direction of Charles S. Lindsay, the Choral Club has sung for the Heights Woman's Club, Bering Memorial Methodist Church, St. Marks Methodist Church, First Methodist Church, and for assembly programs. They gave a program at Heights Christian Church and Hogg Junior High School. They won first division honors in the Regional Vocal Contest and second division in the National Contest.

Aside from performances before assembly and other school activity groups, the Boys' Glee Club appeared before such civic and religious groups as the Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Y.M.C.A., a radio station, St. Mark's Methodist Church, and Grace Methodist Church. They placed in second division in the Regional and second division in the National Vocal Contest. They are directed by Ezell Murdock.

The Glee Club Quartet became very popular at banquets, service clubs, and various school programs. They placed first in the State and first in the National Vocal Contest.

Official School Colors

Designed by Lieutenant Colonel John L. Lee, the colors are in Maroon and White—the field of Maroon with historical meanings imposed thereon in White adopted from the records of the man for whom Reagan High School was named, John H. Reagan.

The star represents brilliant and unselfish service performed in behalf of the State of Texas in an official capacity; the Diagonal Bars represent service and devotion to the Confederate States of America as Postmaster General and other important posts; the Coat of Arms of the United States represents service in behalf of the United States as Senator and other important duties.

. . . It's a Sporting World - - -

Such is the general idea around Reagan when these eight coaches get started on varied class work, intramurals, contests, inter-school games, and Interscholastic League events during the year.

Beginning something new in the field of girls' physical education this year, Miss Ida Mehr, Mrs. Irma Huebner, Miss Virginia Clampitte, and Mrs. Opal Cowan propose, by new methods, to bridge the gap between junior high school days and college physical education with a program of skilled planning and individuality wherein each teacher instructs each Reagan girl for six weeks of every semester.

Coach Joe Turner, all dressed-up-looking and on his way to the Beaumont Track Meet, must have known he was going to win before he started.

And sporting through it all is Reagan's own mascot, Frosty!—with a "Hi, Kids, you all know me!"

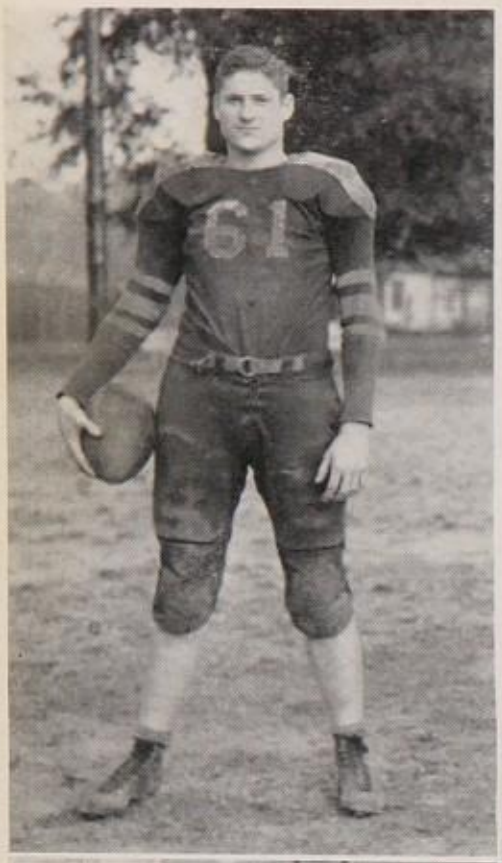
Although it was highlighted by victories over Jefferson Davis, their traditional rivals, Milby and Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio, the season which the Bulldogs closed November 25 with a thrilling 19-13 loss to the San Jacinto Bears was an unsuccessful one for the Reagan Bulldogs.

The record is explainable in that the '39 team was the lightest and most inexperienced eleven in years. The Maroon and White line had only three '38 lettermen returning. They were Slaughter, Burgess, and Pritchett, but at the beginning of the season the fleet Burgess was shifted to halfback—the season starting with Roman and Burgess in the backfield — Ford and Slaughter on the line.

. . . In a Group, They Fought Together . . .

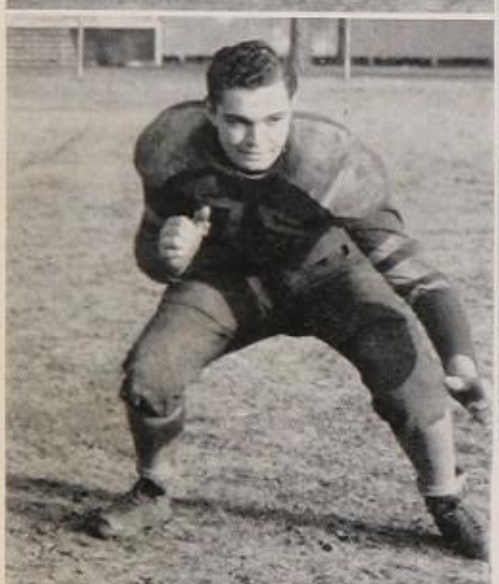


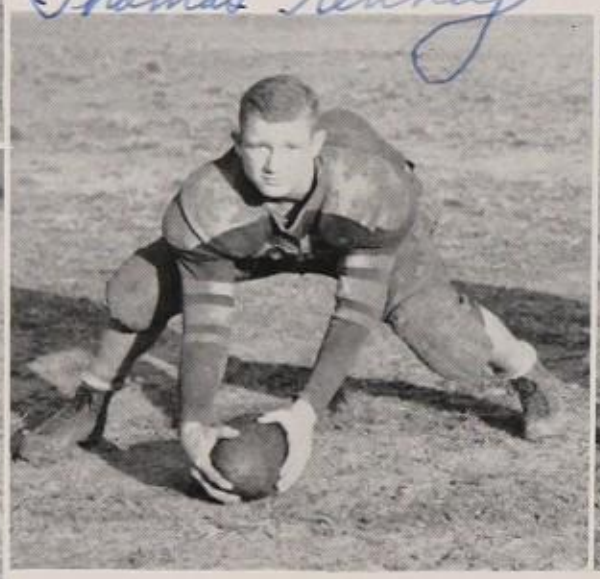
LINCOLN ROMAN—Smashing, all-district fullback, played on All-Southern team . . .

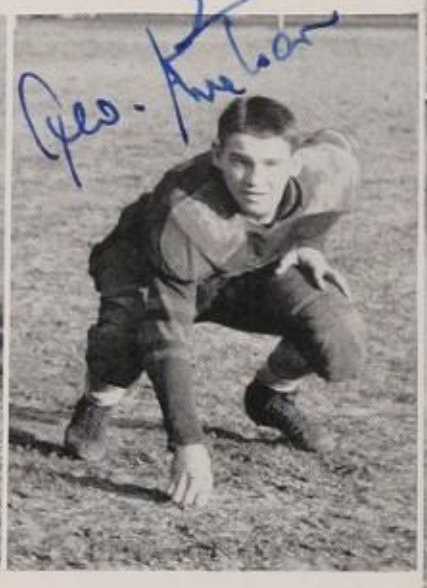
ARTHUR SNELL—with Storenski, Snell furnished the Bulldog aerial attack, shared running chores . . .

GEORGE KNETZAR—unusually fine defensive guard . . . will be back next year . . .

TOM KENNY—Junior center—should overcome slight inconsistency next year . . .







TED PRITCHETT—Biggest Bulldog regular, consistent player at tackle . . .

DOUG FRAME—Capable and experienced guard, played heads-up football all season . . .

C. A. BUCHANAN—Speedy junior end—should be very dangerous next year . . .

MANTON BURGESS—Big, fast and shifty halfback; very tricky beyond the line of scrimmage . . .

BOBBY LEWIS—Speedy quarterback; dependable signal-caller and safety man . . .

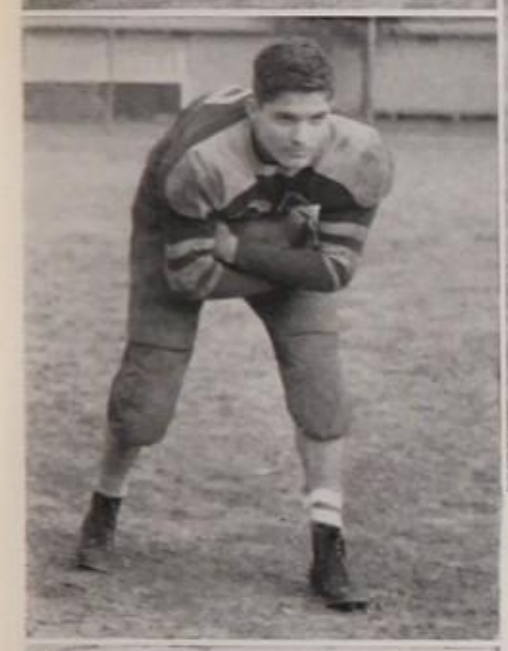
TOM SPENCER—Big end; fast and shifty; pass-snatching made him an important cog in the Bulldogs' aerial offense . . .

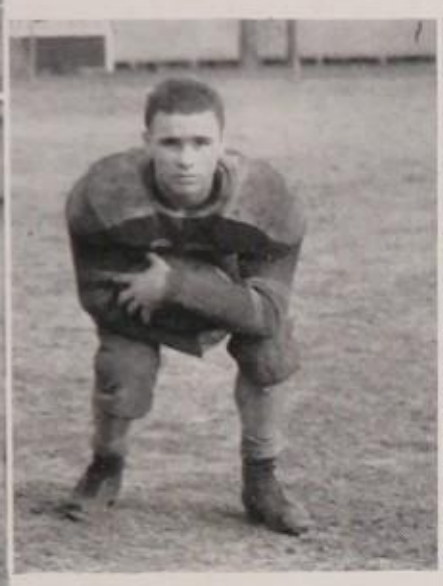
JIMMY KISHI—Speedy Japanese halfback; will be back next year as co-captain . . .

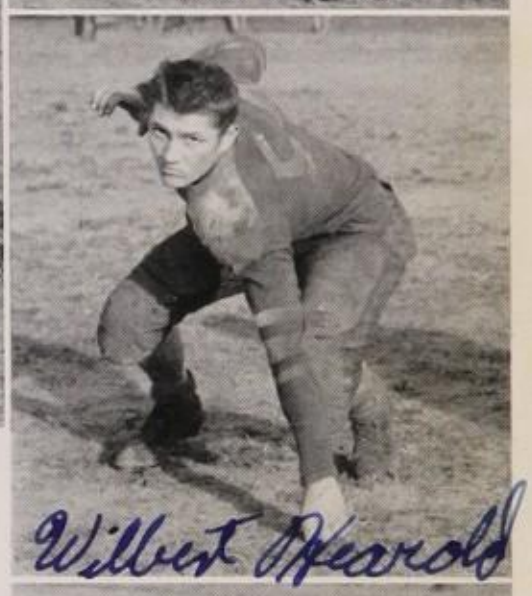
ED STORENSKI—Big passing halfback; also gained yardage through the line . . .

MARVIN MORGANROTH—Junior quarterback; dependable safety man; all-city second team . . .

PEDRO MESA—Hustling halfback and center; made up for his lack of weight with speed and hustle . . .







GENE STRICKLAND—Versatile junior halfback; next year's co-captain . . .

O. E. THAYER—stocky guard; played well on defense and offense; shared kicking chores . . .

GARDNER FORD—All-district guard; finely balanced defensive and offensive lineman . . .

WILBUR HEAROLD—Wilbur developed into one of the best Bulldog defensive tackles . . .

BOB HART—Developed into one of Reagan's best tackles in the latter part of the season; back next year.

WILLIARD SMITH—Fleet end; good on defense; dangerous offensive player . . .

. . . Roman Crashes Through . . .

The Bulldogs began their season at Buff Stadium with a 39-6 win over Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio. The Heights football machine unleashed power and speed in the form of smashing Lincoln Roman, and busy fleet halfback Burgess.

Next the Reagan team bucked against Austin, Texas, to lose a heart breaker 7-6. The Austin, Texas, game started a losing streak which did not break until the Davis game. During this period the Canines lost to Conroe 20-19 when one of their touchdowns was called back; 15-0 to Stephen F. Austin, the city's No. 1 team; 13-0 to the Sam Houston Tigers; and 24-0 to the strong No. 2 Lamar team.

However, one of the season's high points came November 9 when John H. Reagan beat its old rival, Jeff Davis. Following was a 13-6 victory over Milby's strongest team in years, and the season ended with the Bulldogs and Buffaloes tied for fifth place.

LINCOLN ROMAN—big forward and only mid-term graduate to letter . . .

. . . Throw a Goal for Reagan - - -

The 1939-40 Reagan basketball quintet placed fifth in the city basketball race, winning five out of their twelve starts.

Individual standouts were Pat McMichael, guard and captain, Jack "Dynamite" Wagner, flashy little forward, and Tom Sinclair, tall forward.

The Bulldogs began their season with a startling upset over Jeff Davis, shading the Panthers 21 to 19 but suffered a 10 to 40 defeat at the hands of Lamar. The Heights Quintet picked up a 31 to 25 victory over the San Jacs but dropped their next to the Milby Buffs.

The Reagan cagers retaliated with a 25 to 23 victory over the Austin aggregation but lost their next five tilts: to Sam Houston 23 to 28, Davis 19 to 40, to Lamar 20 to 31, to San Jacinto 20 to 40, and to Milby 25 to 28.

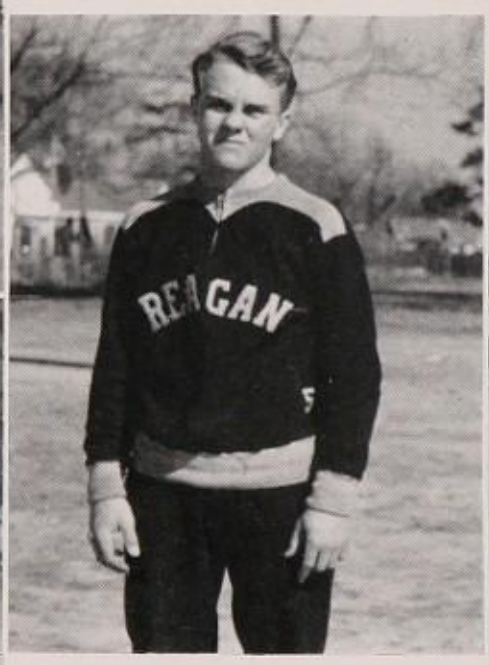
The Bulldogs rallied in their last two games, and with the improved playing of Tom Sinclair, defeated Lamar 27 to 25 and Sam Houston 25 to 20 to end the season.

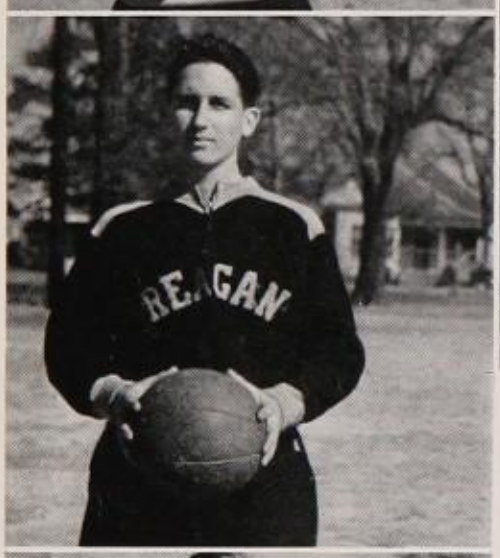
GROVER NOONAN—Fine defensive forward; handled ball well; back next year . . .

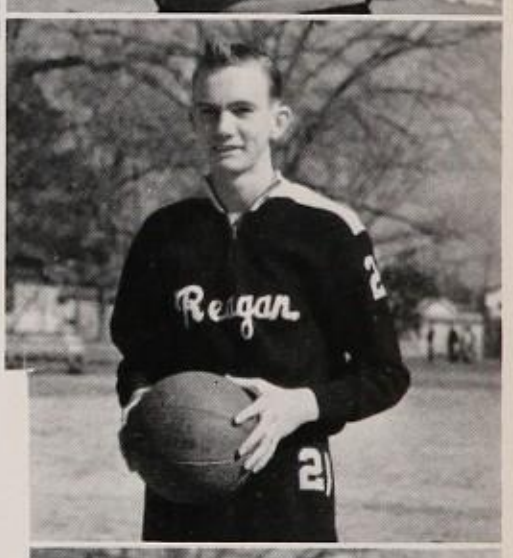
PAT McMICHAEL—Fiery red-headed guard; Bulldogs' best floor man. Captain . . .

BOBBY REED—Sophomore flash; small but speedy forward; will be real threat next year . . .

WILTON FERRELL—Big sophomore forward; ready on defense; will be dangerous next year . . .





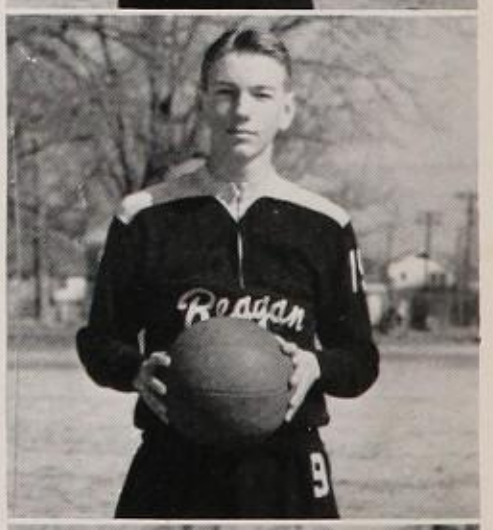


CRAWFORD ROSEBROUGH—Speedy forward; accurate with one hand shots . . .

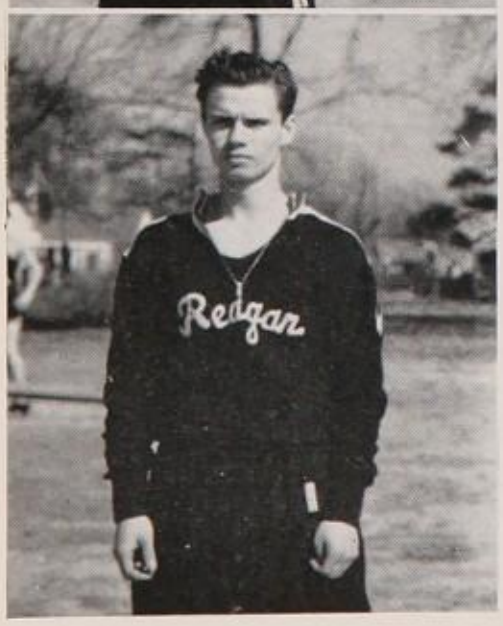
FRANK GREGG—Big blonde junior; his height and ability made him a scoring threat . . .

ARNOLD DYSON—Illusive junior guard. Fast; dribbled, and handled ball well . . .

BILL FERRELL—Lanky forward; bench captain. Bill's height proved a valuable asset under the basket . . .



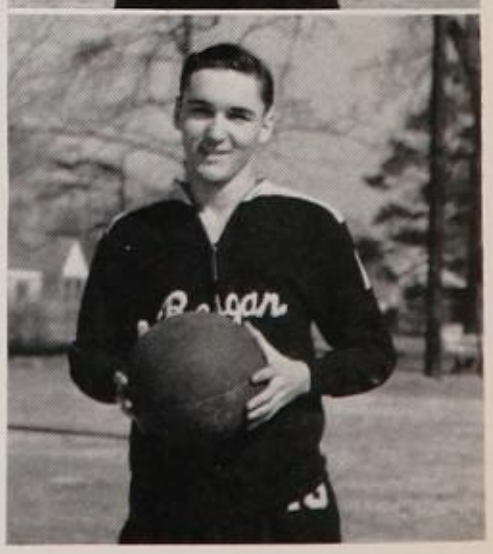
JACK WAGNER—Small but spectacular forward—thrilled the crowds with his flashy shots . . .



FRANK AKIN—Tall junior forward—especially good at tipping ball from under the basket . . .

LYNN GEORGE—Speedy and extremely deceptive guard; handled ball well; next year's captain.

TOM SINCLAIR—Dependable forward—played best in tight spots; lettered for second year . . .



. . . Tennis Stars Crowd the Net - - -

Reagan was represented in the tennis fray by Grover Noonan in the boys' singles and by Ted Norpoth and Billy Tabola in the doubles.

Noonan represented Reagan in the city eliminations and was beaten 6-2, 6-4 by Sam Houston's representative.

The 1940 Bulldog doubles' combination of Norpoth and Tabola competed seven times through the regional competition. Included in these tourneys were out-of-town meets: at Victoria, where the Reagan netters lost in the finals; at Beaumont, where the doubles' combination won 6-3, 6-1; and at Corpus Christi, where Tabola and Norpoth entered separately and each entered the finals, with Tabola taking the victor's laurels. The Bulldogs played their last practice sets at River Oaks, where Norpoth lost in the finals and Tabola fell in the semi-finals.

The doubles' team entered official competition for the first time in the City Meet and won 6-2, 6-1, 6-3, and entered district competition, where they repeated to win 6-1, 6-3, 6-2. Their district victory led them to the Regional Meet, where they won 6-3, 6-0, 6-3. Then on to state - - -

Noonan, Tabola and Norpoth will return next year.

. . . Trackin' on Down - - -

The John Reagan Trackmen of 1940 competed seven times in practice meets before entering district competition. They entered their first tourney at Liberty, placing third. The Bulldogs repeated for another third at Cameron in their next trial, and really hit their stride to take first place at the Beaumont meet. At Conroe, the home team took first, defeating the Heights boys by a quarter of a point.

The San Jacinto relays made it two heart-breakers in a row, with Reagan dropping the meet to Davis by one point, but the Bulldogs retaliated with a first place in their next start, Livingston.

The Jeff Davis team defeated the Reagan boys at the district meet, although the latter took three first places: Raymond Coons in the pole vault, Lloyd Morris in the mile, and Kenneth Lindow in the broad jump.

Stand-outs and co-captains were Raymond and Kenneth. Raymond took three firsts in the pole vault events and ran on five winning relay teams, while Kenneth was undefeated in the broad-jump event during the eight meets in which he participated, Lloyd, breaking the mile record at the city meet, and Raymond and Kenneth representing Reagan at State Meet where Kenneth placed first in the broad-jump.

. . . "Turner-Men" Sweep Cross Country . . .

Before a cheering crowd of over 300 fans, the Reagan cross-country harriers swept across the finish line at Hermann Park December 12 to establish the tenth consecutive victory for the Heights. Fred Maxwell of Reagan led the field to win first place for the second time in two years, missing the record by 7 seconds. Time was 13:21:05.

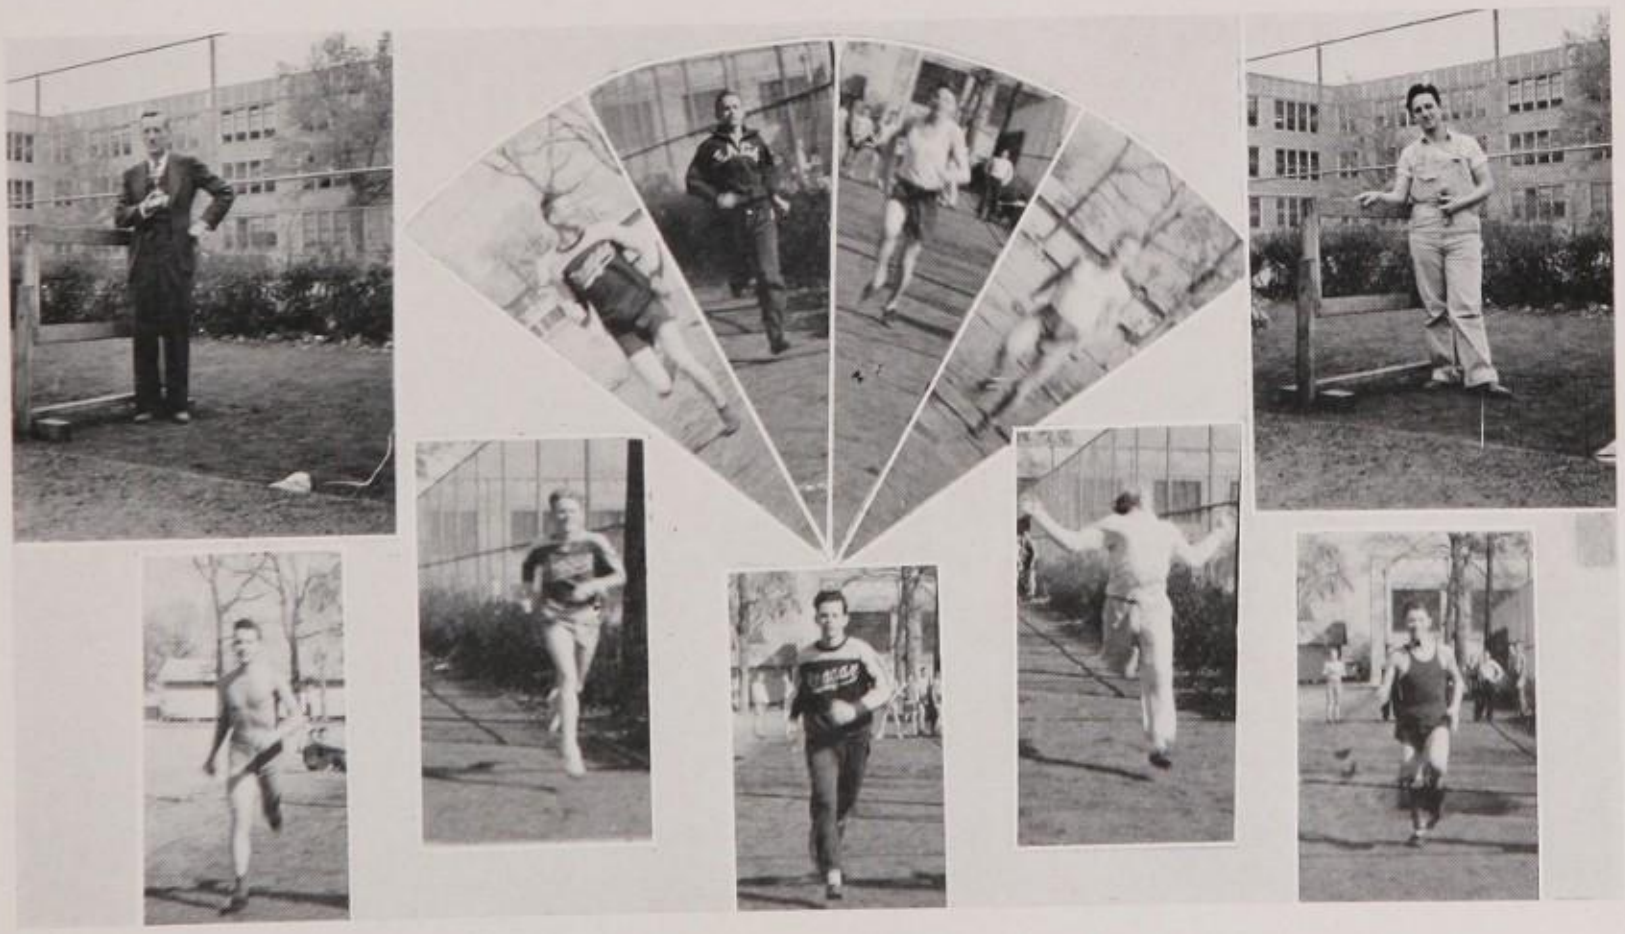
The Bulldogs were engaged in three meets during the season. Their first was a dual meet with Austin. The Canines were the victors, winning with first, second, third, fifth, sixth, and seventh places.

The second was a dual meet with Milby. The Canines easily walked off with the victory by winning first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth places.

The City Meet was another easy win for the Reagan harriers. They captured first, fourth, fifth, ninth, and tenth places. The five lettermen placed in the following order: Fred Maxwell, Buddy Norris, Cliff Johnston, Melvin Harper, and Jack Lemmon.

Returning lettermen for 1940 are Captain Jack Lemmon and Cliff Johnston. Returning squadmen are Murphy Thibodeaux, Henry Best, Cloyce Walker, and Billy Reese.

The 1939 Reagan cross-country squad was unusually enthusiastic. It had plenty of spirit, intestinal fortitude, and willingness to sacrifice good times to keep training. A collection was taken among members of the fall class to buy a trophy which was presented to Coach Joe Turner at the Annual Cross-Country Banquet.



. . . At Work - - -

The Girls' Physical Education Department at Reagan is one of the most progressive in Texas. In September a new plan surplanted the old routine of one instructor teaching one group for the entire semester. The new program, which broadens the gap between junior and senior high school, is divided into five divisions.

Team Sports, taught by Miss Ida Mehr, chairman of the department, gives the students an understanding of the rules, fundamentals, and skills of basketball, baseball and volleyball.

Individual Sports include tournaments in archery and tennis, and skill tests in swimming. This section is under the care of Mrs. Opal Cowan.

Health Education, which is taught every girl one day a week by Mrs. Irma Huebner, includes safety in the home, personality, diet, complexions, and first aid.

Recreational Activities and Modern Dancing, the last two sections of the new program, are taught by Miss Virginia Clampitte . . . the activities in the spring and the dancing in the fall.

. . . And at Play - - -

Miss Mehr's Tennis Club holds ladder tournaments to determine the representatives in the tournaments with other schools and in the City Tournament in the spring.

The Dolphin Club, sponsored by Mrs Cowan, participated in Sports Day at Lamar and presented the annual Water Pageant in the Spring.

The Hi-Lo and Modern Dance Clubs under Miss Clampitte's supervision, gave an original composition in the All-City Dance Pageant.

The Archery Club, sponsored by Mrs. Huebner, participated in contests with other schools and with Troop 30 of the Boy Scouts.
